

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]

Washington, June 8.—President Wilson today nominated these brigadier generals to be major generals:

John F. Morrison, Wm. L. Stewart and Charles G. Morton.

Eighteen colonels were promoted to be brigadiers. They were:

Edwin F. Glenn, John Edgar Henry C. Hodges, jr., Adelbert Cronkhite, Wm. H. Sages, Olin Bundy, Richard M. Blatchford, Charles Shanks, Robert L. Bullard, Augustus O. Blockson, George F. Bennett, Joseph T. Dickman, Henry Allen, Charles W. Keady, C. Hale, Samuel W. Starling, Wm. M. Wright and Payton C. Marsh.

AUTO-INTOXICATION EXPLAINED!

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

There is no question but that many people suffer from auto-intoxication and ptomaine poisoning. These are big words which are easily explained. Thru the failure of the liver to properly perform its work the twenty-seven feet of intestines become clogged. This stagnation throws poisons into the blood and the circulation, and one suffers from back breath, foul taste in the mouth, and even yellow-coated tongue, headache, nausea, or fullness. Gas often presses its diaphragm against the heart and causes pain there, or acid dyspepsia follows; often the inactive liver causes yellow skin and eyes, and one feels languid, tired and debilitated. At such times some people are advised by their doctors to take a mineral oil, often called "Russian Oil," but experiments by R. P. McDonald have shown, as lately reported in a government publication of the U. S. Public Health Service, that mineral oil may act as an irritant that produces gastro-intestinal disturbances and that it may cause tissue proliferation, stimulating cancer.

A better method, which I always advise, is to take as much outdoor exercise as possible, drink half a pint of hot water morning and night and plenty of water between meals and take a pleasant laxative pill occasionally. Such a one is made up of the May-apple, of vegetable calomel, and other concentrated herb extracts that give tone to the bowels. This was first made and sold by almost all druggists nearly 50 years ago as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. Such simple means will remove that bugbear, auto-intoxication, constipation and the ills that follow, by favoring healthy action.

"I CAN NOW EAT WHAT I WANT"

Newark Street Contractor Tells What Tanlac Did.

"Well, I guess I will have to give Tanlac the credit for relieving the pains and aches in my shoulders whether I want to or not," says M. T. Keeley, 118 Jackson street, Newark, well known as a street paving contractor.

"For fifteen years I have been troubled with my shoulders," continued Mr. Keeley. "I have traveled a great deal in my time and that gave me the advantage of being able to try many remedies, including baths at different health resorts.

"I want to say candidly and truthfully that I never found anything that did me as much good as Tanlac. I was laid up in bed for fifteen weeks. I couldn't lift my hands. I had to be fed like a baby.

"I had to be very careful what I ate. It seems that my ailment affected my stomach. Even then my food often soured on my stomach and caused stuffy, bloated feelings.

"But Tanlac quickly did away with all of this. It gave me a good appetite and I can eat anything I want. Meat, potatoes, pie or nothing else hurts me."

"I recently recommended Tanlac to one of the men who works for me. He told me that it had given him wonderful relief. I endorse Tanlac as being the best tonic I ever tried, and I have tried a lot of them."

If you are not feeling right, try Tanlac.

Tanlac may be obtained in Newark at Erman's Arcade drug store; in Hebron at Hebron Drug Co.; in Alexandria at C. M. Gilmore's; in Pataskala at J. R. Strine's; in Granville at W. P. Ullman's.

LICKING COUNTY'S SHARE OF $100,000,000 RED CROSS FUND TO BE THIRTY THOUSAND DOLLARS

During the week beginning Monday, June 18th the people of the United States will be asked to contribute one hundred million dollars to the American Red Cross—one dollar for every man, woman and child in this country.

This is a large amount of money but it will all be needed for the care of our boys who are now in or who are about to enter the service. Within the past few weeks scores of our Licking county boys have enlisted in the army or the navy and out of the 4180 Licking county men who registered last Tuesday many will be chosen for service. Our young men responded promptly to the call to the colors and it is now up to the rest of us to do our bit by seeing that our share of the funds is subscribed for the prosecution of the war and for the care of our own men at the front.

General Pershing reached Great Britain this morning. Yesterday a large cargo of grain reached France for use of the American army. Destroyers and United States battle ships are in the war zone right now. America is in the war and is in to win.

The people of Licking county are asked to subscribe to $475,000 worth of the Liberty bonds and the subscriptions are coming in at such a rate as to indicate success. The people of this community will be asked during the week of June 18 to give thirty thousand dollars to the Red Cross and as this money, a part of the $100,000,000 fund, will be used to care for our own Licking county boys it will be given freely and gladly. Newark men are now meeting and organizing and planning for the campaign. Many solicitors will go to work and will call upon the people for contributions.

A County War Council of the Red Cross was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at 4 p. m. Thursday at which were present representatives of the county auxiliaries and of the Granges.

Rev. L. P. Franklin, chairman of the Licking county chapter, opened the meeting with a brief outline of the work planned at the council called by President Wilson in Washington on May 25th.

Rev. Mr. Franklin stated that at that meeting the necessity for the immediate mobilization of all Red Cross forces was urged upon the representatives and the week of June 18-25 was set aside by proclamation of the President as Red Cross Week, and that during that week the attention of the whole country is to be concentrated upon the raising of $100,000,000 for Red Cross work alone.

Dr. W. H. Lewis suggested that meetings be called by the different communities and that speakers be sent from Newark. It was decided to place George H. Mosser in charge of the county to make a schedule of meetings and arrange for speakers.

Arrangements for meetings were made as follows:

Pataskala—Mrs. Charles E. Courtier, Theon McFadden and Mrs. Carl McFadden.

Utica—Freda Snook and Lucile Lloyd.

Hebron—Mary Rosebraugh, Mrs. Karl White, Mrs. De Forest Carlisle, Jacksonstown—T. C. Jurey.

Brownsville—Byron Zwyer.

Newark Rumanian society—Marjarian Marian, P. Chima and Lumina Zitel.

Other appointments will be announced later.

GOETHALS WANTS STEEL SHIPS FOR MERCHANT MARINE

(Associated Press Telegram)

Washington, June 8.—The policy of Major General George W. Goethals, general manager of the government's emergency fleet corporation, toward wooden-ship building was today the object of criticism of F. A. Eustis, assistant general manager, and F. Huntington Clark, his assistant.

They gave out statements declaring that while General Goethals has limited the wooden-ship building program to 250 ships in 18 months, 10 builders have offered to construct 786 vessels in 18 months, and that 2000 wooden ships could be built in that period without interfering with the work on steel vessels. The 10 builders made offers on the basis of cost, plus 10 per cent profit, but General Goethals rejected the proposals and insisted on bids with a flat price. This policy has delayed the building program, Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark declared.

General Goethals had no comment to make when the statements were given out, but said he probably would reply later.

Mr. Eustis and Mr. Clark are mining engineers who proposed the wooden-ship building program adopted by the federal shipping board to combat the submarine campaign. General Goethals believes steel ships are more practical.

The disagreement between Major General Goethals, general manager of the emergency fleet corporation and his aids over the wooden ship building program was considered today at a special meeting of the shipping board with the prospect that F. A. Eustis, assistant general manager of the corporation and F. Huntington Clark, his assistant, originators of the wooden ship plan would offer their resignations.

Statements issued last night by Eustis and Clark virtually charging General Goethals with blocking the building of wooden ships by demanding an impossible form of contract opened a new controversy as to the value of wooden vessels as cargo vessels. General Goethals was expected to announce his decision today.

Chairman Denman of the shipping board is known to favor wooden ships but declared today he knew nothing of the Eustis and Clark statements until they were made and that the board members had not insisted on either steel or wooden ships.

GROSSMAN FACES CHARGE OF THEFT OF HIS OWN HORSE

Mt. Vernon, June 8.—Fearful of going to Utica where there is a warrant for his arrest on a charge of "stealing" his own horse, Robert Grossman today appealed to Chief of Police Parker who advised him to fight the case.

Grossman claims to have contracted with a "trainer" in Utica to work there recently and found the animal hitched to a junk dealer's wagon ill-nourished and in a pitiful condition. Promptly securing the horse, he returned to his home in Pike township, this county. Now he is charged with larceny.

TWO NEWARK MEN HAVE JOINED U. S. ARTILLERY

Two Newark men left on Thursday night for Douglas, Ariz., where they will go into training for service in the regular army.

Theodore Weisk of North Cedar street, and Joseph Rohan of 339 Florence street, enlisted in Columbus in the field artillery of the regular army. They left for Douglas last night to join their company.

Seattle, Wash., June 8.—Lieutenant Kenneth Herron, U. S. N., superintendent of new work at the Puget Sound navy yard at Bremerton, was found dead in bed from a gunshot wound last night in a Bremerton hotel. A naval board today will investigate the death to determine whether the wound was self-inflicted. 6-1P131

SEMAPHORE SIGNAL ATTRACTS NOTICE; TWO RECRUITS SIGN

The semaphore signalling of the soldiers at the headquarters of Company B, Fourth Ohio Infantry, last night attracted a great deal of attention and hundreds watched the man on the courthouse send the message.

As he was about to ascend to the courthouse a sealed message was handed him which he sent to an officer at the recruiting headquarters. It read: "Look what God hath wrought." Semaphore signalling consists of a telegraph with flags, the position of the flags determining the letters, and every soldier is required to become proficient in this signalling.

A life and drum corps was stationed in front of the headquarters and every effort is being made to fill up the ranks of Company B with men from Licking county, if this is possible.

The company has but a short time to recruit to full war strength and Lieut. Koepfel is making every effort to arouse the interest of the men of the county, in the fact that they will have to serve and that it is better to select the company with which they wish to serve.

The men who applied for enlistment yesterday were: Samuel Wilson of North Twenty-first street, and Thomas R. Painter of North Twenty-first street.

U. C. T. CONVENTION IN FULL SWING; DELEGATES BUSY

Newark today is making welcome between 1000 and 1500 members of the United Commercial Travelers who are attending the state convention here. On Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock, nearly 600 had registered at the headquarters, making a record for a first days' attendance.

All morning delegations continued to pour into the city—Zanesville sending a big party, accompanied by a band, and Springfield also sent a large delegation.

The real business of the state convention of the United Commercial Travelers began this morning, when the grand council members and delegates were formally welcomed to the city by Mayor Bigbee on behalf of the citizens, and Frank L. Beggs, as president of the Chamber of Commerce, and prominent member of the U. C. T.

ROBERT ARNOTT, JR.

Of Cleveland, Member of the Executive Committee.

Immediately following the convention went into executive session and the real work took up much of the day. The reports from the various committees and state officers were given and the election of officers played an important part in today's program. It is customary for the offices to be filled by the election of the man in the next highest office, thereby merely graduating the officers. The only active balloting is on the member of the executive committee to be elected sentinel, and the two new members of the executive committee seems the likely choice for the office of sentinel.

W. S. TRACE

The contest for the convention of 1918 is being made a big feature of the present session. Springfield and Cleveland are waging a warm fight to the one chosen. Both have large delegations present, distributing literature, badges and advertising novelties. The convention city, however will not be selected until Saturday morning.

The work of the convention is well systematized and every effort is made to conduct it briefly in order to permit all attending the convention to participate in the social features arranged. None of the laws of the order are possible here, although recommendations can be made which will be referred to the supreme council meeting. The supreme council will meet in Columbus on June 26.

E. G. WITMER

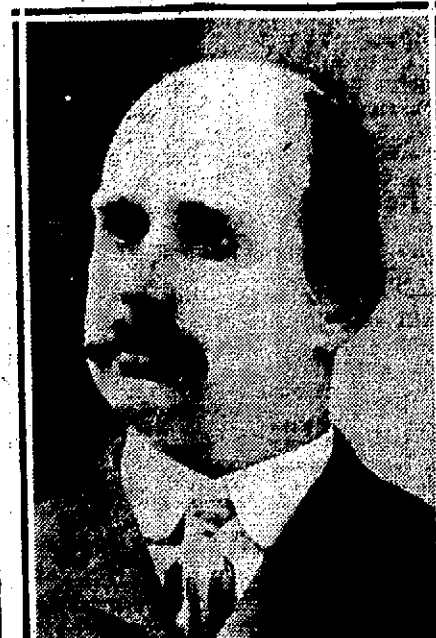

Of Akron, who will be elected to the head of the U. C. T. in Ohio. He is now Grand Junior Councilor.

Yesterday afternoon and evening the executive committee met but did not complete its work, the remainder was conducted this morning before convening. The finance committee composed of J. DeLee of Mansfield, Charles H. Gibbs of Canton, and John M. Ferguson of Cincinnati, went over the books of the organization, finding them in first class condition.

For those whose attendance was not demanded in the convention sessions an auto ride afforded entertainment during the morning hours. At 9 o'clock over 250 machines were parked along East Main street, and for every visitor who cared to make the sightseeing trip over the city, admirable accommodations had been prepared.

After visiting points of interest in Newark the party accompanied by Dave Murphy's Rube band, went to Granville, where a reception committee met them, showing them over the campus and buildings of Denison University. A delightful carnival program was given by the girls of Shepardson college, including drills, pageants, and exhibition by the various classes. The morning had promised to be disagreeable but brightened as the party left the city.

MARDI GRAS LAST NIGHT

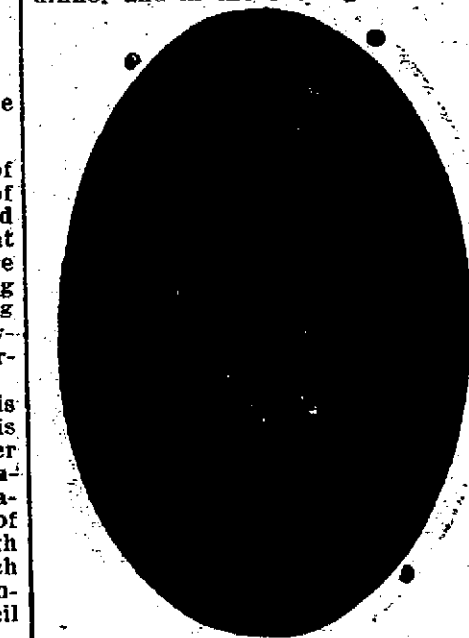

Newark was but a throng of happy, carefree, pleasure seekers Thursday night when the big Mardi Gras and carnival inaugurated the first night's entertainment for the visitors to the U. C. T. convention, and the citizens of Newark.

It was the first event of the kind to be given in Newark and was an unqualified success. There were hundreds in every conceivable costume, but the crowd was orderly, and every one seemed to have but one thought, a good time.

At 7 o'clock the Buckeye Band gave a number of concerts and parading about the town streets, the masked dancers fell into line parading to Hudson avenue. The streets had been roped off and at the opening of the great open air pavilion a huge U. C. T. emblem emblazoned with electric lights had been placed above the large electric sign reading "welcome." At the Wyoming street end of the pavilion a huge illuminated American flag was used. Pennants and flags made the place gay, and the whole was brightly illuminated. From 8 o'clock until midnight, the Buckeye Band furnished a continuous dance program, and thousands enjoyed the evening. The costumes were given wide range in originality and variety, and the entire event was a kaleidoscope of color, gaiety and fun.

At the conclusion of the business of the afternoon session, the scene of the convention was shifted to Buckeye Lake, where the same hospitality that has featured the Newark entertainment prevailed.

There will be dancing on the big pavilion over the lake, and an airplane flight was given. At 5 o'clock it is planned to serve a big barbecue dinner and in the evening the Mau-ger pier will again be devoted entirely to the visitors and members of the U. C. T.

Tomorrow morning the business of the convention will be resumed the convention city selected and the newly elected officers installed. The convention closes in the afternoon with the tremendous street parade of all the delegations, and will be reviewed by the grand officers on the balcony of the Warden Hotel.

At the morning session, the committee on rules and order of business reported the program for the convention.

Report of committee on credentials.

Special committee: W. L. Taylor, Findlay; H. T. Watson, Ashton, and W. H. Woodward of Norwalk.

U. C. T. NOTES

The Zanesville delegation headed by Secretary Geiger of the Chamber of Commerce and the Seventh Regiment band renewed acquaintances about the city today. They are more than welcomed on any occasion, and make quite a hit when they visited a large department store, paraded through the corridors and gave a concert on the balcony.

The members of the Newark Council, present a natty appearance in their palm beach suits with straw sailors with the blue yellow and white bands, and the canes.

A feature of last night's parade was the rube band headed by Dave Murphy, attired in his checkered minstrel garb.

Newark machine owners responded royally with machines this morning, there being more than enough to accommodate the crowd.

The dancer attired in an oriental garb of silk attracted much applause for his oriental dances. The costume was an unusually beautiful one.

The "colored mammy" on roller skates, was not only an artist on the skates but a genuine fun maker, and his antics added much to the pleasure of the evening.

HILL NO. 60, FAMOUS IN EARLY DAYS IS BLASTED TO DUST

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, June 8.—All the special correspondents at the front in their descriptions of the Messines battle, feature the tremendous explosion of mines which preceded the British advance. "The earth opened and the Germans disappeared," is one terse description.

Every writer likens the effect on the surrounding terrain to an earthquake. One says that the height on which he stood shook like jelly. Another, who says the explosive used was ammol, writes:

"We saw what might have been the doors thrown open in front of a number of blast furnaces. They appeared in pairs, in threes and successive singles and with each blast the earth shook and shivered beneath our feet. It is worse than an earthquake. Thunder clouds of smoke rose in solid form to immense heights from Hill No. 60, from Wytchaele wood and other places, and while our eyes were full of the spectacle, a thousand guns opened fire. The air shook as the earth trembled and where earth and air met incredible explosions seemed to rend the world and we appeared part of some cosmic revolution.

"We saw familiar landscapes, already ploughed and harrowed by the war, vanish or assume grotesque shapes. Hill No. 60 went up in fine dust."

The correspondents agree in anticipating desperate counter-attacks. They say the Germans are massing vast forces and intimate that the battle has only begun.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS RE-ELECT GEN. HARRISON

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, June 8.—Confederate veterans sent to Gettysburg today to unveil a memorial statue of General Robert E. Lee and to visit the old bloody battlefield where they were turned back by Union arms a half century ago. This was the last feature of the reunion this week, and many veterans and visitors left today for their homes.

General George P. Harrison of Opelika, Ala., was re-elected commander-in-chief of the veterans and Tulsa, Okla., was selected for next year's reunion.

POLICE DRAG RIVER FOR BODIES OF FOUR PEOPLE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

East Liverpool, Ohio, June 8.—Police today were dragging the Ohio river here in an effort to locate the bodies of John Davison, 39, his wife, Elizabeth Davison, 24, and her father, Fred Grimm, 60, who were drowned last night when the skiff in which they were riding upset 20 feet from shore. The entire fire department worked five hours before placing the fire under control.

COLUMBUS WAS COSTLY FIRE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Ohio, June 8.—Several business houses at Vine and Park streets were destroyed early today by a fire which did damage estimated at more than $100,000. Many families near the scene were forced to abandon their homes because of the thick smoke. The entire fire department worked five hours before placing the fire under control.

BODY SENT TO HOME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Ironton, O., June 8.—The body of Luella Viers, aged 19, who police believe was murdered, was taken to Prestonburg, Ky., today following the positive identification yesterday by Mrs. Lottie Viers, her mother.

The mother said her daughter left home in December, accompanied by a man who the police are now searching for. The body was found several days ago in the river near here, weighted down with an iron bar. It is believed the body had been in the water several months.

Newark, Ohio, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Flag raisings are fine, but vegetable
raisings are still finer.

It is much easier to get up a riot
against the empire than against conscription.

It is much pleasanter to pay taxes
to Washington than an indemnity to Berlin.

The persistence with which Berlin denies that there are submarines
in our waters is proof conclusive that they are over here.

Some of these anti-draft plotters
will soon have a chance to exercise
all their ingenuity in plotting how to escape from jail.

After bitterly denouncing congress
for its dawdling delays, a good many men who intended to buy a Liberty
bond will forget to do so.

If we can't use food speculators to degrade lamp-posts with as some would like to, they will at least be highly ornamental occupants of our jails.

The Russian army can't fight because it has no food or munitions,
and the food and munition workers
can't work because the army controls everything.

Not all the slackers are slouchy
and disreputable looking toughs who won't go to war. Some of them occupy swell front houses and can't buy Liberty bonds because they only pay 3-1-2 per cent.

The people who make fun of the graduating essays expressed by the graduating essays are usually the same ones who find fault because no one in their town has the courage to go ahead and do anything.

OUR DUTY.

Today's cable dispatches from London tell of the enthusiastic and cordial reception given General Pershing upon his arrival at a British port this morning. The public did not know that General Pershing had left the United States, but the newspapers had the information which was properly withheld from publication without a censorship of the press.

The vessel which carried General Pershing and his staff across the Atlantic was escorted through the danger zone by American destroyers. In an interview with the Associated Press correspondent this morning, General Pershing said that in a very short time the United States will be doing its part and a very large part in prosecuting the war in France.
Yesterday's dispatches told of the arrival of a large cargo of food in Europe for use of the American army
and also announced the arrival of United States warships in French waters. The presence of American destroyers, American warships, American transports and American soldiers in Great Britain and France means that the United States is really in this war and that she is in
to stay until the great struggle is brought to a successful conclusion.
The American flag does not know defect.

BADGE FUND NOW NEARLY $400

The Licking County Soldiers' Identification badge fund is approaching the $400 mark. Up to last night the total number of contributions reached 1128, twenty having been received during the day amounting to $10.95 and making a grand total of $293.56.

Licking county's proportion in the new army, it is thought, will be about 350 men. Already more than 100 men from this county have entered the service and it is said that Licking county's quota will be credited with those who have volunteered. No authoritative statement has as yet been made and for that reason it is as yet impossible to say the exact number of medals that will be required. The Advocate has ordered 400 and if necessary to supply
every Licking county man in the service more will be ordered. As soon as the revised design arrives from the factory in New York a picture of the identification badge will appear in this newspaper.

Those who have been receiving contributions in Granville, Patas-
kala, Croton, Alexandria, Brownsville and elsewhere throughout the county are requested to send prompt remittance to this office together with a complete list of names very plainly written for publication. Others in Newark or elsewhere who desire to be enrolled in this big list of contributors are asked to send their names and remittances at once.

All of these names will be published in the Advocate and will also be sent to every Licking county man who receives an identification badge.
If the reader wants to be included in the list the name must be sent in at once. The fund now promises to run over the amount asked for, namely, $400. It is possible that more than $400 will be needed, but if more is given than is needed for the medals, the entire surplus will be given to W. W. Gard, treasurer of the Newark Chapter of the Red Cross.

The Advocate has another supply of Registration buttons. Those failed to receive buttons may each obtain one by presenting the registration card at this office. Yester-

ANOTHER CHINESE PUZZLE.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

It is quite impossible to draw from the present complex and confused conditions any accurate explanation of the present Chinese rebellion. The cause which seems superficially apparent may or may not prove to be the real inspiration of the rebels. It is easy to blame Japan for all that happens in the orient. Japan is the only powerful nation of the far east, and Japan, beyond any question, has been endeavoring to manipulate Chinese affairs to suit her own aims. But on the face of the news it must appear somewhat improbable that Japan, a nation disliked and feared in China,
could have engineered a widespread rebellion for the overthrow of an anti-Japanese administration.

Japan would gain nothing by China's formal declaration of war against Germany, and the presence of Chinese representatives at the conference table after the war might be detrimental to Japanese interests. It is, of course, the Japanese ambition to be sole arbitrator of the destinies of the far east. The government at Peking which is apparently, on its last legs, has been Chinese nation to the brink of war,
and a declaration of belligerency
could be prevented only by the overthrow of the government.

Japan's menace may account for the long hesitancy of President Li.
The executive, who is now held to be the object of Japan's hostile maneuvers, seemed for a time to be the leader of the anti-war sentiment
and to be in the position of a man
forced by weight of popular opinion
to act contrary to his own judgment.
There are many features of the present situation of which this hesitancy
of the president is one, which can be made to track with the theory of a Japanese-made rebellion.

One point is clear. The patriotic republicans of the Sun Yat Sen type are not in sympathy with the present uprising. If the rebellion is successful there will once more be the danger of a partition of China and of the establishment of a real republic in the south. The men who cast-out the Manchus and who patiently endured the reactionary reactors of Yuan Shih Kai cannot be expected to subscribe to a rebellion
of military chiefs possibly instigated and financed from Tokyo.
Oriental diplomacy is devious and deep, far too dark and cunning for ready interpretation. The one definite result as yet achieved is the withholding of China from participation in the world war, and if it proved that Japan is responsible, it must be clear that the government
at Tokyo has been guilty of bad faith toward the European and American allies. It will, however, be wise to wait for satisfactory proof before condemning Japan.

AMERICA'S BURDEN.

(Ohio State Journal)

To conquer in the great war in which we are engaged the soul and body of this nation are pledged and both must be devoted wholly to the task. It is a great task, which demands the tribute of all we have of blood, of business and of happiness.
The duty has come down through the ages, calling upon this generation and America to perform it.
There is no hedging or backing out
or seeking cover—we are in for it, greatest sacrifice any nation has ever made. We must give all to win.
Democracy, freedom, civilization are at stake and America holds the decision in its keeping. The people hardly seem to comprehend the situation they are in. They go on eating, and drinking, and dancing, and trading, and making money apparently oblivious of the fact that the nation is passing through the ordeal
that may set her back for centuries and blot out the purest pages of her history. It is time we were feeling the mighty alternative and doing something that measures up to it.

We are beginning. The conscription has started. The wheels of nationalism have begun to spin. But it is only a beginning. Half a million men and seven billions of money are enough to start with. We must hasten the drawing and arming and transportation. We must get into battle and take part in the slaughter.
That's the only way, and the thing to do is to take the only way soon.

Personal Loss.

Oh! Bobby, I hear you had a burglar at your house last night. Did he take much?

Yes, he took my big red apple an'
a lot o' stuff belongin' to mother—

Sheep Industry.

Oregon sheep to the number of 6000 have been bought by the New York City Food Supply Commission
and are to be sold at cost to restock farms within the state. The signature by the governor of the Wicks
Dog bill is believed to have given
New York sheep-raisers a chance.
There is a similar, though less dramatic, bill somewhere in the legislature at Harrisburg; and, possibly, Pennsylvania farmers also would take a chance at raising wool and, incidentally, mutton if they could get it.
The dog population of the United States is estimated at 35,000,000,
and the larger part of it is neither useful nor ornamental; in the rural communities the roving dog is an intolerable nuisance. —Philadelphia Record.

"The Leaven."

Little by little the world is beginning to realize that what is called the war is nothing more or less than a colossal mental world fermentation. Years ago, in her dedicatory sermon, delivered in The Mother Church, in Boston, on January 6, 1895, Mrs. Eddy summed up this very condition of things in the word
"chemicalization." "This spiritual
"chemicalization," she then said, "is the upheaval produced when Truth is neutralizing error and impurities are passed off." It would be difficult to sum up the political condition of the world today more clearly than in those words. —Christian Science Monitor.

Another "Full Crew" Law.
The construction of a merchant marine adequate for the increased demands of the world's shipping on American registry is a problem of mechanical capacity, but the recruiting of crews with which to man them
is a far different matter, the importance of which is just now dawning upon the Shipping Board and the Department of Commerce. In fact, the task, under the LaFollette-Furushett Seaman's act, is an impossibility, and already the shortage of ship officers and seamen for the merchant marine has inspired a suggestion for the suspension of this law. —Philadelphia Bulletin.

Business More Than Usual.
There is a place in the line for every man. It is a far-flung battle line, in which men who are past the military age or men who for other reasons may not carry guns, are still enlisted. The promotion of trade and commerce in a time of war, resulting in the production of more wealth and greater accumulation of the funds needed to carry on the campaign, is one of the prime factors in modern war. Without the continuing production of wealth in a nation at war, its forces in the field
must eventually grow demoralized
and lose something in efficiency.
With an army and navy built and equipped on the lines which this war demands, industry of all kinds must be prosecuted with more than usual activity. The English phrase, "business as usual," falls a little short of expressing the full need. Business more than usual is the call of the hour. —St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Readers' Viewpoint

To The Advocate:
I arrived at Camp Perry Monday evening and have seen practically every young man who enlisted in Newark, and have not heard a man
set say he was homesick or disappointed in any way although some were surprised to find so much mud.
Having had charge of the recruiting station in Newark, I made it my duty to see the young men who enlisted under me and I must say they all seem to be enjoying life fine. I find it quite homelike as I know so many of the boys.

Children's Sayings.
A lady on North Fourth Street recently bought some baby chickens that greatly interested a little neighbor girl. It was soon discovered that they were in need of the application of an insecticide, so some was procured and mixed, according to Hoyle, with grease and applied liberally, with the immediate effect of making them look like they had tried to cross the Red Sea ahead of schudal. The next morning was one of the rare warm ones we have had occasionally this spring, and when the little girl ran over to look at the erstwhile fluffy chickens she exclaimed, "Oh, look how they're sweating!"

Using a Dictionary.
She was just a little girl,—eager, enthusiastic, sensitive, and proud as could be of her newly acquired understanding of the use of a dictionary. So one day when her "home work" consisted of words to define, she went at her task with delight. One of the words was "pray," and her little lexicon gave only one definition, "supplicate," so of course she wrote this down in a big round hand. Next morning when she joyously presented the paper to Teacher, that wise lady, after a glance at it, tossed it contemptuously into the waste basket, remarking in tones that turned the child's joy to gall and wormwood, "Don't use words you don't know the meaning of." Of course we don't suppose there's any one who really knows more than a young lady who has recently graduated from the High School, but after a lapse of time she will find, if she is made of the right stuff, that all this vast knowledge may, by a little crowding, accommodate itself in a very few small brain cells. And by this time she will have discovered, still supposing she is made of the right stuff, that tyranny and injustice have no more place in the education of a child than they have in the development of a nation. Oh yes, this happened right here in Newark.

Did You Know
That a touch-stone is a hard black stone occasionally used in as-saying? The best kind is a peculiar bituminous quartz obtained from Lydia in Asia Minor; but black basalt may be employed. The process is as follows:—A series of small bars are formed, the first consisting of pure gold; the second, of 23 of gold and one of copper; the third, of 22 of gold and two of copper, and so on. The assayer selects one of these alloys which from its color he judges to approach nearest in composition to the alloy which he is about to assay. This he rubs on the stone, and the streak which it leaves is red in proportion to the copper that is present. The streak formed by the alloy to be assayed is then compared with that formed by the various bars, and corresponding streaks indicate corresponding amounts of copper. Hence, an approximate estimate of the amount of copper in an alloy can be made.

NEWARK HAS FEW NERVOUS MEN AND WOMEN

Nervousness On The Decline.

Still the good work goes on, soon there will not be any more tired, nervous people in our city.

This is caused largely by the widespread use of Phosphated Iron, the new tonic and nerve-bracer that has sprung into instant popularity with the medical world.

Phosphated Iron will help any run down, nervous condition almost immediately. It will put fresh iron in the blood, the phosphates taking hold of the nerve centers and bracing them up. You will eat better, sleep better and get up in the morning feeling like doing things. You will feel the old time vim and snap of youth surging through your veins. You will tackle the day's work with confidence and a smile.

Science has taught us that when we have enough Iron and Phosphorus in the blood and nerves we are healthy; that almost all conditions of ill health and nervousness are due to the lack of Iron or Phosphorus. Phosphated Iron rarely fails to supply the needed amount of both.

Use Phosphated Iron one week and you will forget you were ever nervous tired out and run down, you can feel it taking hold.

Special Notice. To insure your receiving the genius Phosphated Iron we have put up in Capsules Only. Do not allow dealers to substitute Tablets or Pills. Evans Drug Store, Newark, O., and leading druggists everywhere.

Alkali Makes Soap Bad For Washing Hair

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is just plain mul- sified coconut oil, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and beats the most expensive soaps or anything else all to pieces. You can get this at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleans thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

BRITISH AND BELGIANS GET REVENGE FOR BLOODY YPRES ATTACK EARLY IN THE WAR

From a Staff Correspondent of the Associated Press, with the British armies in France, June 8.—Via London, June 8.—The British armies struck today on a new front and won a victory which supplements the successes at Arras during the last two months. The Germans, though apparently aware that the blow was coming and seemingly prepared to meet it, were driven from their nearly three years' hold on Messines Ridge, opposite poor old Ypres, the last remnant of an important Belgian town, which with the help of the French and British in turn, has held out against all the massed attacks the Germans could fling against it, including the first great surprise of poison gas as a means of supposed civilized warfare.

Ypres in a sense was avenged today, for Messines Ridge has been the vantage point from which the Germans have poured torrents of fire into the stricken city. The British also wiped off an old score against the Germans, for they held the ridge in October, 1914, and with very thin forces and virtually no artillery fought bloodily, but vainly, to hold it when the Prussian troops massed their modern and overpowering weapons of war against it. Today's attack lacked many of the elements of surprise which accompanied the battle of Arras and the successful storming of Vimy Ridge. There has been no doubt for three weeks past as to the intentions of the British. The Germans knew that a big push was to be made against Messines, and they had plenty of time to prepare for the defense of that place. Prisoners taken today, however, declared that the bombardment of Vimy was child's play compared with the gunfire turned upon Messines Ridge.

This fire reached its climax just as dawn was graying the eastern skies and while the full moon was still suspended high in the heavens. Today's successes, won along about a 10-mile front from Observatory Ridge, southeast of Ypres, to Floegsteun, which just south of Armentieres, proved another triumph for British artillery supremacy. As the fighting was wholly on Belgian soil, however, the Belgian artillery, stationed some distance north of the actual line of attack, lent aid with a violent bombardment of the German positions within range of its varied caliber weapons.

Messines Ridge is a low-lying promontory extending along the greater part of today's front. It is an insignificant bit of ground to look at from below. At its greatest height it rises barely 70 meters above sea level. The surrounding country is so low and flat, however, that Messines had an observation value virtually incalculable. It was a position which dominated the northern half of the British line in the west, and no operations of a large character could be planned without its possession.

Seventy meters is not a great height, but when you have been sitting at 20 or 30 meters, with the enemy looking down at you, and pouring shot and shell incessantly about your position, the higher grounds means a victory of supreme importance.

Yesterday's attack was accompanied by all the arts of deviltries of latter-day war. The enemy guns and gun crews had been bathed for days in gas shells sent over by the long-range British guns. The night was filled with red incendiary flames. Shells that spouted molten metal in surging streams of golden rain crashed in appalling numbers about the heads of the defending soldiers. High explosive and shrapnel fire was carried out with such rapidity that the very earth writhed under the force of the attack.

Mines that had taken two years to dig and fill with an overwhelming explosive broke into an avalanche of flaming destruction in the half light of dawn. This was indeed an Ypres day of retaliation and victory for the vicious sufferings of two years and eight months.

Hill 60, of evil renown, always the nearest menace to Ypres, went up with other strong points under the impulse of hundreds and hundreds of tons of a series of explosive compound. The mining plans had been so great and so carefully made that the British knew that even if they did not affect the strategy of the situation they would at least materially change geography. However, both strategically and geographically the assaults were victorious and all the corps and divisions employed reported that their objectives had been reached and maintained.

There had been good fighting throughout the day, although the artillery success had made the infantry assaults comparatively easy. Late last night the Germans were reported massing in two flanking positions, apparently for heavy counter attacks. The British, meantime, however, had brought their guns far forward on the ridge and were prepared.

TAKE 5,000 PRISONERS.

New York, June 8.—In one of the most elaborately planned and dastardly executed maneuvers of the war, Sir Douglas Haig's forces have dealt a mighty blow against the German line in Belgium and have been rewarded with notable gains in terrain and the capture of more than 5,000 prisoners and numerous guns of various caliber. In addition they inflicted heavy casualties on the Germans.

Over a front of more than nine miles, extending from the region of Ypres southward nearly to Armentieres, the British started their drive in the early hours of Thursday morning and at nightfall had everywhere advanced their line, capturing villages and numerous points of vantage, among the latter the Messines-Wytschaete Ridge, which commands the surrounding plains for miles and which for two years and a half has been a troublesome salient.

The village of Messines and Wytschaete fell into the hands of the British during the attack and the British even pressed on eastward from Wytschaete and occupied the village of Oosttaverne and trenches east of the village on a front of more than five miles.

Probably never in history was an attack launched with greater preparation. For days the Wytschaete salient had been the objective of the British guns, which had hurled tons of steel upon it. When the time for the attack came the British loosed mines containing 1,000,000 pounds of high explosives in front of the German positions, the detonations being heard 130 miles away in England.

With consternation reigning among the Germans and under a curtain of fire English, Irish, New Zealand and Australian infantrymen, with tanks to aid them, started across the open. The Germans offered only slight resistance and everywhere were beaten off, even late in the afternoon, when they had somewhat regained their composure and attempted counter attacks near the southern end of the line, which was broken up by the British artillery fire.

GREAT SEAL BEGGS CO. NEWARK, O.

Twenty-two years ago the Styron-Beggs Company commenced to manufacture flavoring extracts and grocers' drugs in a small room 15x20 feet on the corner of North Fourth and Chestnut streets.

This was before the day of pure food laws and government regulation, when competition was based upon quantity, instead of quality, and also upon how cheap rather than how good. The founders of this enterprise were strong in their faith that a demand could be created for flavoring extracts of high quality and superior merit, they also believed that when drugs and medicines were needed, the best were none too good, and that the public could be brought to appreciate and demand the highest possible standard of quality.

They put these theories to the test, and how well they have succeeded can best be answered by a visit to the busy factory on South Fourth street and a comparison of their present factory of more than 50,000 square feet of floor space with the 300 square feet of twenty-two years ago.

It is generally known that the Styron-Beggs Company have the best and most complete factory building in Newark, but it is not so well known that it also ranks as one of the most convenient, sanitary and largest in the United States devoted exclusively to the manufacture of flavoring extracts and grocers' drugs. The old factory buildings are 100x200, and the adjoining site on which the new building is located is 50x100, extending from Fourth to Fifth street.

Many were the struggles of the early days to secure recognition and a foothold, but hardships only served to call forth courage and courage impelled them to still greater enterprise. Ever eager to excel in their line, they saw visions of success if the public could only be convinced that they were honest in their claims of superior quality. How this could be done was solved by the adoption of their "Great Seal" trade mark, bearing the words "Dealers authorized to guarantee these goods". This was not meant as a catch phrase, but something to be lived up to, something to create confidence in the mind of the consumer. That confidence has been attained and has never been abused or betrayed, and, as good as "Great Seal" is a name often used by their competitors in an effort to sell other brands.

Two expert pharmacists and chemists are in charge of the laboratory, all materials are tested before using and rejected if they do not come up to the "Great Seal" standard of quality. The latest and most improved machinery is installed, and skilled foremen and contented workers keep factory cost at the minimum. Fifteen traveling salesmen cover most of the territory east of the Mississippi river, and more than 600 jobbers and 10,000 retailers are handling "Great Seal" products.

A visit to the "Great Seal Home" impresses one with the scrupulously clean, orderly and sanitary condition of processes and products. Visitors are welcome at all times and invited to see for themselves just how "Great Seal" products are prepared. All this concerns you if you are a purchaser of Flavoring Extracts and Grocers' Drugs. If you are at all particular, you want to know that what you buy is clean, wholesome, of standard quality, and packed under proper supervision. "Great Seal" products are sold only by legitimate dealers and are never sold by agents with a scheme, or peddled from door to door. Specify "Great Seal" when making your purchases and be assured that you will receive the quality that pleases and is of value for your money. If it bears the "Great Seal" trade mark, it must be the best.

ONE HUNDRED BOYS AND GIRLS FINISH LAST COURSE IN NEWARK SCHOOLS

The annual commencement exercises of the Newark High school were held last evening in the Auditorium of that building, a class of one hundred seniors being graduated after a four years course.

The large auditorium was filled to overflowing, every available seat being occupied, the balcony also being filled and many were disappointed in not being able to gain admission. The seating arrangements were excellent and a large corps of students were the ushers.

The hall was nicely decorated in American colors and strands of bunting was hung around the balcony railing and across the stage. Large clusters of palms and ferns were placed on each side of the apron and vases of flowers were found places among the gentry strings of which were entwined across the footlights.

When the curtain arose it disclosed a happy class of smiling countenances of fifty-eight girls and forty-two boys, garbed in the regulation cap and gown seated upon an elevation of three tiers. Members of the board of education, Hon. Wm. E. Miller, J. M. Mitchell, Ben Montgomery, S. W. Haight and W. C. Christion, with Superintendent Wilson Hawkins and Principal O. J. Barnes marched across the stage and took seats in front of the class.

Rev. Chas. H. Stull asked the invocation and the class splendidly rendered "Out of the North Comes a Storm," by Rolfe. The first oration of the evening was then given by Howard Claggett, who received the highest honors of his class, having the best grades in the four years college preparatory course of the school. He chose for his subject "The Need For Scientific Farming," and he handled it in an able manner, demonstrating that he had devoted much thought to the subject. His enunciation was especially good and he was accorded generous applause upon the conclusion of his oration.

Miss Lorena Berger, who with Mr. Claggett was awarded a scholarship by Denison University, followed. She had received the highest grades of the girls and had the position of honor. She had selected as the subject of her oration, "America's Musical Progress in the Last Decade," and it was a splendid tribute to the development of that art. She commended many of her country's great masters in music and her contribution to the program was one of the many interesting events of the evening. She too was generously applauded as were all her classmates who followed.

The next number was a delightful one, a violin solo by Roydon Stevens, a member of the class, who played with the technique and finished interpretation of one much older. He rendered one of Wieniawski's master pieces, "Legende," and it was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience.

Next on the program was an oration by Everett Wintermute, whose subject was "Submarine Warfare." The young man had evidently given much thought to that subject for he developed a wonderful knowledge of the under sea fighters, and spoke of the great influence exercised by those craft in the present world struggle. His utterances showed a careful training in elocution and his audience was interested throughout.

Miss Esther Hartshorn was next with a discourse on "The Contribution of Woman to Modern Civilization," and she too showed careful training along elocutionary lines. She delved into her subject with a thoroughness which convinced her auditors that she had made a profound study of the subject and she covered it from every standpoint of woman's activities along all lines.

A piano solo, "Fire-Flies" followed, delightfully rendered by Miss Lorena Berger, who is an artist of unusual ability in pianoforte. "National Prohibition" was the subject of an oration by Ralph Little, and he covered a wide scope in discussing one of the most important problems before the American people and he showed that he had given the subject much study.

"The Modern American Newspaper" was the next oration and in the hands of William Cooperider was handled in a splendid manner. The orator told of the wonderful influence exercised by these agents of publicity, how they moulded public opinion and how they covered the believable.

Carl Brubaker and Roydon Stevens had the next number, a violin duet, "Heart's Desire," by Ochs. The two young men acquitted themselves admirably, their number being delightfully interpreted and skill displayed in handling the red instrument.

"Our Fleet in the Air" by Courtney Hertel disclosed many facts regarding that method of warfare. His theme was appropriate just at this time and he had everyone in the audience greatly interested in the many statements which he made covering our aerial ships.

Miss Elizabeth Kibler had chosen for her thesis a "Noble Service," and she handled it in a glowing manner. She displayed much talent and aptitude and her oration was one of the pleasing events of the evening.

The chorus next sang "Old Glory," after which Supt. Hawkins addressed the audience and the graduates. He gave the latter much good advice, now that their public school work is finished, and stated that they were just entering into a broader field of education. He then stated that it became his pleasant duty to award the Harvard cup, to one of the young men of the class. The beautiful silver loving cup was handsomely engraved and is the annual gift of one of the city's young business men, himself a graduate of Harvard University, and at present in his country's service at one of the officers' training camps. The cup is awarded by vote of the faculty to the boy displaying the best all round scholarship, and Supt. Hawkins stated that ten of the boys of the class had received votes. In awarding the cup six things are considered, scholarship, character, school spirit, leadership, initiative and the part displayed in school activities, the latter embracing athletics, class plays, debating, extra activities, etc., in fact the best all round student, as the donor of the cup put the matter.

Supt. Hawkins stated that it was his pleasure to award the cup to Mr. Carl Brubaker. The young man then came upon the stage, and although never more astonished in his life, made a neat speech of acceptance.

Supt. Hawkins next awarded four volumes each of the American Statesmen to Marshal Ditter and Everett Wintermute, the donor asking that the prizes be awarded the two boys showing the most thorough work and efficiency in American history and civics.

President William E. Miller of the board of education next advanced to the center of the stage and after complimenting the class stated that the members of the class stated that on account of the lateness of the hour he would not indulge in any extended remarks. He then presented the graduates with their diplomas after which the benediction was pronounced by Rev. Mr. Stull.

AUDITORIUM.

"The Book Agent."
Douglas Fairbanks will have to look to his high jumping and posturing laurels if Otis Turner turns loose Geo. Walsh in any more stories like "The Book Agent." The theme of the picture is comedy-drama, with the accent very strongly on the comedy, and the whole production goes with a rush that keeps the audience keyed up all the way through. The villains are a desperate indeed, but Mr. Walsh takes them on three or four at a time, and, though at the climax they drop all hero through a trap set for them, he manages to extricate himself and escape triumphantly with the heroine in his arms. George Walsh is given a fine opportunity to display his agility and strength, usually circumventing the opposition in a comic manner, so that the film is as full of laughs as it is of thrills.

This feature together with two special added features will make up an Auditorium program for today and tomorrow.

One of the extra reels "Zeppelins Attack New York," in which the Zeppelins are shown on their majestic course across the sky as they come over the sea laden with bombs for New York. The city is seen from the harbor, the harbor lights extinguished. There is a battle in the air and the Zeppelin is dashed to the ground. Its spectacular, and must be seen to be appreciated. The other extra reel, "Manning the Navy," shows the training station at Lake Bluff, Ill. How a raw recruit is made into a sea navy "Jackie" is seen. This feature should be seen by those who expect to join the naval service.

"A Poor Little Rich Girl."
Manager Fenberg of the Auditorium theater announces his engagement of Mary Pickford's newest photoplay released by Artcraft Pictures, "A Poor Little Rich Girl," adapted from the well-known book and play of the same name by Eleanor Gates.

As an ideal vehicle for "Little Mary," it is readily felt that this story affords Miss Pickford one of the best motion picture subjects ever secured for her. The novel by Eleanor Gates of which a special photoplay edition has been issued, became widely popular as did the play which scored a big hit at the Hudson theater, New York City, several years ago and duplicated this success on the road. This is a return engagement for "A Poor Little Rich Girl" and will be seen at the Auditorium Sunday together with a comedy feature, "The King of Cooks," in which George Dickel, of Watson and Dickel is seen together with Sister Evelyn. This feature is specially screened for comedy seekers and there are quite a number who look for them every Sunday at the Auditorium. "Happy" Golden, a famous minstrel man is the singer and some special numbers are promised.

"Her Strange Wedding."
Despite the fact that Fannie Ward gained her reputation on the stage as a comedienne, she has been successful since becoming a Lasky-Paramount star in the enacting of dramatic roles. It was for this reason that Jesse L. Lasky purchased from George Middleton "Her Strange Wedding," which has been adapted for the screen by Charles Maigne and assigned to Miss Ward as a stellar vehicle.

The story of "Her Strange Wedding" is one of the most remarkable conceptions that has been given the screen. It concerns Coralie Grayson, a rather frivolous young girl, who is loved by two brothers.

Jack Dean is Max and Tom Forman is the younger brother. The production is being staged under the direction of George Melford.

Soon to be seen at the Auditorium theater.

The Paramount features for the Auditorium are Monday and Tuesday, "Highway of Honor" with Kathryn Williams and House Peters.

Wednesday and Thursday, Pauline Frederick in "Her Better Self."

Chaplin Pictures.
Charles Chaplin, world famous film comedian, has been offered $1,000,000 to produce twelve more pictures for the Mutual Film Corporation. Chaplin has turned down this immense proposition, being willing to make only eight pictures for the million dollars.

Chaplin has asserted that if his proposition does not meet the approval of the Mutual authorities he will likely build his own studio and sell his next year's output to the highest bidder. If the comedian and Mr. Mutual do not come to terms it is very probable that the Mutual will continue the Lone Star studio at Los Angeles with another company of players, Eric Campbell and Edna Purviance will follow the Chaplin fortunes wherever they may fall.

ALHAMBRA.
Tonight and Tomorrow, "His Father's Son," a play of love, mirth and millions, with Lione Barrymore and Irene Howley as co-stars, produced in five acts by Rolfe Photoplays, Inc., from the story of Channing Pollock and Renold Wink under the direction of George D. Baker will be shown at the Alhambra tonight and tomorrow.

Sunday.
Shirley Mason, perhaps the youngest of the really famous motion picture stars, is the featured player in the Kleins-Edition production "The Law of the North," which will be the leading attraction at the Alhambra theater Sunday.

Little Miss Mason, who is a younger sister of Viola Dana, another celebrated Kleins-Edition star, literally began her stage career as an infant in arms. At the age of four she was given her first "speaking part," when she created the role of the boy, Hal, with Faversham in "The Squawman." Four seasons were spent with Joseph Jefferson in "Rip Van Winkle" and then with Charles Cherry, Richard Bennett and other stars.

Treason's Twilight Zone

Aid and comfort to our German enemy assume a peculiarly insidious and subtle form, as we are warned by leading papers in various parts of the country, by the attempts of certain journals to confuse the minds of the American people about our motives in entering the war, and to implant seeds of suspicion and distrust concerning our Allies.

On this subject the Chicago Herald very clearly and strongly says, "It's about time for the ham-strings that are lurking in the tall grass and the saboteurs who are trying to throw monkey-wrenches into the war machinery, to shut off and up or look for unpleasant consequences."

In THE LITERARY DIGEST for June 9th, the leading article discusses from all angles this new kind of German propaganda which the St. Louis Post-Dispatch notes is found not so much in the German-language press, as in certain English-language newspapers in German communities.

This is only one article among many which will be of unusual interest to the American reading public. Other topics are:

A Mental Tonic That Ensures Breadth of Vision

Even the best and most broad-minded of us, if we live constantly in one place, meet the same people, and pursue the same round of daily duties and pleasures, are apt to become parochial, to miss the wide sweep of the winds of thought and progress that blow about the earth. Thus situated, we need some mental tonic, some invigorating stimulus from without to bring us into harmony with the onward march of events. And such a tonic, such a vitalizing stimulus every one of us may obtain in THE LITERARY DIGEST, which clarifies one's news-impressions, corrects one's world-perspective, and gradually develops in one's mind a sane philosophy of current history. It gives you the news of all countries on all subjects, impartially and interestingly, and indulges in no personal preachments. Clean, sane, and clear-visioned, it puts you in weekly touch with the throbbing life of the world. Make trial of it to-day.

IDENTIFICATION BADGE FOR EACH SOLDIER.

The Newark Advocate originated a movement to raise $400 by popular subscriptions of ten cents or more, for the purpose of presenting each young man of this county who registered, with a red, white and blue badge. Also to provide each Licking county young man who is drawn for service, with a bronze embossed identification medal engraved with name and address of the owner. How sadly the need of some means of identification, was found in the civil war when hundreds were buried as "unknown," when their bodies would be identified, have been sent home to friends.

There was a ready response to the proposed fund, in Newark, and each of the outlying towns of the county was invited to send additions to the list.

In Utica, Master Mac Halderman devoted some time to the cause, and he secured donations from 80 persons, amounting to $11.05, which was sent to Newark Monday night and credited. The name of each of the donors was published in the Advocate Tuesday evening.

RESURRECTION IS DISCUSSED BY DR. J. A. M'CUAIG

Dr. McCuaig will tonight deliver the last of his lectures in Newark for the week, when at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Church of Christ, he will discuss "Mistakes About Marriage." This is one of the ringing deliverances that has stirred many large communities with a clarion call to a new social consciousness. With this address Dr. McCuaig will commence in earnest his larger campaign to be carried through next week.

Last night, in the discussion of the question "If a man die shall he live again?" Dr. McCuaig took for his text Acts 4:33—"With great power gave to the apostles the witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus." "The resurrection of Jesus was the great theme of apostolic preaching," declared Dr. McCuaig. "There are three reasons for this. First, there was a natural reason, the resurrection of Jesus was a living present reality to these men. They had been eye-witnesses of His death, they had been eye-witnesses of His resurrected life. They had been eye-witnesses of His ascension. To them it was very real. They did not preach a doctrine merely—they declared a living present reality that was making glad their lives. Second, there was a logic reason, the resurrection of Jesus was the only power equal to the forces against them. The forces in array against them, doubtless, kept them in constant reliance upon their source of strength. They had to meet the deep-rooted power of a lifeless religious ceremonial, and all history bears testimony to the cruel malignity of a religion out of which the spirit has gone. They had to meet the fierce hate of the priests and rulers behind this ceremonial. They had to meet the crying needs of a sinful unhappy people. But they had the resurrection. Third, there was a practical reason, the resurrection of Jesus wheeled into line for battle every piece of Divine artillery. It thundered the Deity of Jesus. It proclaimed His power over sin. It boomed the awful doom of the wicked. And so they preached this truth, and they preached it with power.

"That they preached it in the power of a joyous all-embracing conviction there can be no doubt. That they preached it in the power of a living Christ who watched them from on high you may reasonably suppose. But that they preached it in the power of an inspiring hope is the truth I want to urge tonight."

Here Dr. McCuaig declared the hope of the resurrection to be that Christ is the first fruit of those who sleep, and that the hour is coming when those who sleep in the dust shall come forth. The argument of the discourse was to show the credibility of the position that there will be no resurrection. Stone after stone was laid in the argument, till the truth stood forth with irresistible logic.

"The great fact of the resurrection," the preacher cried, "stands not in time or location, but in the living Christ. I am the resurrection, and the life; he that believeth in me though he die, yet shall he live; and whosoever liveth and believeth on me shall never die." This is the power in which we preach to men in sin. This is our hope of reclaiming the world. This is the source of Christian inspiration. He was dead, but is alive again forevermore."

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, June 8.—Rain has fallen during some hour of each day this week, but this morning the sun shone early and continued steadily for several hours. Preparations for the patriotic pageant on Shepardsen campus in honor of the visiting U. C. T., with their wives, were at a standstill. Nature has been adverse to our door demonstrations this whole season, and June seems almost as sulky as gentle May proved herself.

Steele chapel this morning, the final service of the year, was led by President Clark W. Chamberlain. The Denison Masquers can be depended upon to distinguish themselves in the three one-act plays performed in the Opera House tonight. Ned Putnam or W. P. Ullman will help you in selecting a good seat. Call at Ullman's.

Shepardsen and Denison Glee clubs will combine forces in the final concert Saturday evening, June 9, in Recital hall at 8:15. Sunday at 8 a. m., the ceremony of decorating Dr. Shepardsen's grave by students and alumnae of Shepardsen college will take place in Maple Grove; at 10 a. m., the baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the Baptist church at 4 a. m., Miss Brown's vesper organ recital, in the Baptist church; at 7 p. m., the annual service before the Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association will be delivered by Rev. George Van Winkle.

Howard Lewis and Worth Brown, who graduated from Denison the early "naughts" expect to motor from Toledo tomorrow for commencement. Mr. Lewis, who is a member of the law firm of Lewis & Doyle, Toledo, will probably be accompanied by his wife and two boys. Dr. N. W. Brown has been in the Orient since his last visit to Granville and was in field service at the front during the Boxer rebellion in China. Both men were affiliated with the Sigma Chi fraternity during their college days.

John Hundley attended the commencement exercises of the Columbus School for Girls last evening and was a guest at the closing dance. Walter J. Flory, '03, a prominent attorney of Cleveland, was in Granville yesterday, a guest at the Bela Home.

Mrs. Frank Ray and her two daughters, Misses Helen and Frances, will leave this evening for San Francisco. Mrs. L. B. Wing of Columbus will be the guest of Miss M. E. Penney for a few days this week. Commencement Bulletins enclose blanks which President Chamberlain, who has been appointed adjutant of the Denison branch of the National Intelligence committee, with headquarters at Washington, requests the recipients to fill out at once, whether or not they are willing to serve. The boy scouts of Port Clinton on their way to Newark yesterday, stopped in Granville, and formed in line headed by their band for a march to the Denison campus. The boys have been taking in the college towns on their route and on request of Nelson Rupp, who has been at Port Clinton, nd has enlisted for service, the company visited Denison University.

Society

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kochendorfer entertained on Tuesday evening at their country home north of Hebron, with a reception honoring their son and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kochendorfer who have returned from a ten days trip through the east.

The guests numbered forty-five and during the evening a delicious course supper was served in the spacious dining room. The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful gifts.

Mrs. Duff Livingston of Logan avenue, was hostess to the Krochka club, Wednesday afternoon. A delightful afternoon was spent in crocheting and in the guessing contest Mrs. T. K. Stewart was awarded the souvenir. A dainty two course luncheon was served the members and following guests: Mrs. J. H. Butler, Mrs. F. E. Vandergrieff and son, Mrs. J. T. Green of Marysville, and Miss Katherine Bristol. The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. G. W. Matzenbach, in North Thirteenth street, Wednesday, June 20th.

On Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Elmer Deck very pleasantly entertained the Intra-Se club at her home in North Fourth street.

The afternoon was spent in needlework and one contest, working a button hole with the left hand. Mrs. Floyd Goode was awarded the first prize and Mrs. Arthur Holler the booby prize.

At the close of the afternoon, a two-course luncheon was served to 14 members and the following guests Mrs. Fred Keech, Mrs. Leonard Webber and Mrs. Harry Bone. The little ones present were: Betty Bone, Leo Webber, Eleanor Hildreth, Godfrey Deck and Paul Goode who were nicely entertained by Marie Great and Beatrice Keech.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Henry Wilkins at Wilkins Corners, Thursday, June 14.

Mrs. Eugene Ball will be hostess this evening at her home in Clinton street when the members of her class at the Newark High school '92 hold a class reunion. There were twenty-five graduates from the school at that time, and three have died, leaving a membership of twenty-two and of these fourteen will be present at tonight's reunion.

Hook-Carr. On Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. J. C. Sparks performed the marriage of Mrs. Lulu Carr and Mr. George E. Hook, both of Utica. The couple were unattended and will reside in Utica where Mr. Hook is in business.

Mrs. Jessie Smith entertained the members of the Progressive Embroidery club, Thursday afternoon at her home, West Main street. A contest was held, the prize being won by Mrs. Martin Luther. Election of officers was held, the following being elected to office: President, Mrs. Walter Freese; vice president, Mrs. Martin Luther; secretary, Mrs. Dick Curry. After the business meeting refreshments were served. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Lee Bratton of Western avenue.

The regular meeting of the Licking County Equal Suffrage association which was to have been held today has been postponed until further notice.

Milady's Boudoir

If you have observed the guests at a reception or tea you will see that the natural tendency is to choose a comfortable chair and sit there giving short answers whenever the occasion arises. Introducing the guest to an opinion asked by the tactful hostess who strives her hardest to break the calm like silence until it is time to go home.

Among close friends these women may be very entertaining, but they certainly create an unfavorable impression upon strangers.

If this has been your habit, resolve immediately to mend your ways. Make up your mind to be as attractive as you can to others. Forget yourself, and think only of them. Dress in a manner that will be pleasing to the eye, arrange your hair becomingly, take plenty of outdoor exercise, to increase your store of vitality, and, above all, be natural. Worthwhile people refuse to bother with women who try to cover their lack of good breeding with a veneer of affectation.

Entertain in your home if you have nothing to offer but a cup of tea and a cracker. Your friends will come to see you, if you are gracious and charming, whenever you give them an opportunity. It is unnecessary to have a lot of expensive clothes to mingle socially. There is no excuse for a dowd, and she will never be sought after to grace any hostess gathering.

You can wear simple frocks of materials bought at bargain sales, and if you are charming, carry them with the grace of a princess.

So, never sigh for beauty or wealth, thinking that it is possible to be popular without one or the other, for some of the most attractive women the world has ever known were homely and had scarcely a penny with which to bless themselves.

Ragged nerves and beauty go not hand in hand. There is no use in trying to make a lovely complexion and perfect features if one feels like "running and screaming." Frazzled nerves will undo all the work of the best beautifiers. We must learn to rest as thoroughly as we have learned to splendidly how to be restless. Half the rushing around we do is totally unnecessary and unimportant and unresultant. It leaves us worn out and without any progression to our credit.

It ages us when we think it is helping us to keep young. It makes us most unpleasant persons to live with, for the poor woman with ragged nerves can't help being irritable and irresponsible and it makes her inefficient. The first thing such women need is to learn how to let go and rest. Go to some quiet corner and lie down and forget the outside world, and let nature do what all the doctors in the world cannot do without help.

Run away into the lovely pink and green country and let the soft breezes cool your throbbing head and blow the wrinkles out of your strained face, and let the brooks and the birds sing you to sleep. In the meantime we may seek beauty and nerve balm in tonic baths. We can all manage the soothing luxury of a sea salt bath before we go to bed, and we can have the cool ocean bath in the morning with diluted alcohol. There are other wonderful baths which will make you feel like a new woman. Boil half a pound of pine cones one-half hour and strain the infusion into the bedtime tub. Mix together one ounce of tincture of camphor, two ounces of cologne and half an ounce of tincture of benzoin. Add enough to the tub to make it milky and soft.

The business girl must be beautiful in herself, for a real business costume cannot be depended upon to add artifice to enhance the appearance. It is always unwise to select a street coat or tailor's suit of ultra or obtrusive style, for usually the business woman relies on the coat and very likely the whole suit, to last her more than one season.

Tailored suits this season suit the business woman to a T. They are smart, neat, a trifle severe and manly, yet gracefully dashing and becoming. Skirts are short and coats loose enough to be easily donned. Coat sleeves are long, doing away with the bother and expense of long gloves.

No business woman of good sense would dream of appearing at the office in a velvet gown, but corduroy is quite appropriate. It is practical since it may be washed out and hung up to dry with no need of ironing afterwards. It is the ambition of every business woman to look prosperous for success begets success. The business woman desires to look pretty, too, but the right kind of employer prefers prettiness suppressed into exquisitely neat comeliness, to prettiness flaunted in frills and furbelows in a busy office.

Our Boys and Girls

Quite a problem which will confront mother a little later will be the providing of a wardrobe for the children that will help make their vacation a period of comfort and pleasure, and the high rates charged for laundering should also be considered when planning the small outfits. Comfort of course, may easily be secured. A pair of overalls, a set of rompers will provide this, but no child will feel happy so armed among associates wearing pretty clothing that may be as comfortable as well.

Children vary in feature and form quite as much as adults and so it is quite necessary to study what will be becoming to them. A plump little maiden will look ridiculous in a short beruffled skirt, standing out like an overrimmed lampshade, yet the fairy like sister may be a ravishing beauty in the same frock. For a sojourn in the country or at a farmhouse, a frock of some light weight woolen material and several thin white frocks of inexpensive material will be sufficient.

Out of school, children should spend as much time as possible in the open air. They should also go to bed early in rooms provided with all the fresh air available and have refreshing baths followed by a vigorous rubbing down with a coarse towel.

That children are listless and not hungry does not mean that they should go without food, the important point being the selection and attractive form of suitable foods. Observations recorded from hundreds of school children show the bad effects of poor food, while the same children properly fed, have made bodily advance fully four times greater than in their previous condition in given time.

If going on a short journey with the baby it is better to prepare the feedings for the whole trip at home. You can sterilize the milk for this purpose as follows: Stand the filled bottles in a kettle over the fire and let the water boil for about an hour and a half. After boiling, the bottles should be gradually cooled and then made as cold as possible by standing them in a pail of cracked ice.

A good portable ice box for such a journey may be made at home as follows: Use two covered tin pails, one an inch or two smaller than the other, so it may stand inside the larger pail. Fill the space between the two with sawdust, put the bottles with cracked ice in the inner pail and cover both tightly, making a canvass or flannel cover for the whole. To warm the bottle for the baby you should carry an enameled ware pitcher which the train porter will fill with warm water and you can set the bottle in that until warm enough for feeding.

"It isn't so bad for a woman to boss her husband," says the Cynical Bachelor, "if she can keep him from knowing it."

Wicwax—"I saw the sun rise this morning," Guzzler—"Gee! I didn't get to bed till pretty late myself, but you put one over on me there."

Every Day Etiquette

"How would I ask a girl to give me a dance?" inquired Joe.

"Say to the girl with whom you wish to dance, 'May I have the pleasure of dancing with you?'" answered sister.

"When a friend takes me to call on a woman whom she is anxious for me to meet and we find that our hostess is out, should I leave my card?" asked Maud.

"Yes, you should leave your card along with those of your friend," advised her mother.

"Is it customary when one receives the announcement of a friend's wedding to send a gift?" asked Julia.

"Sending a gift is not obligatory, but seems to depend upon the degree of intimacy implied by the word 'friend.' A formal acquaintance seldom sends a gift in acknowledgment of the announcement card, but a close friend is sure to do so," her aunt replied.

Abused Superlatives. It is hard to make people understand that the adjective almost invariably weakens the noun and that the word "very," for instance, does not strengthen a statement, but qualifies it. But the use of the superlative is even more abused. We talk of the "unimpeachable" honesty of somebody or other, knowing perfectly well that anybody's honesty may be impeached. What seems to be required is a readjustment of our habits of thought and better teaching of the value of words and even of the usefulness of grammar. A superlative necessarily involves an axiom. It commits you, like saying that the sum of the angles of any triangle is equal to two right angles. Your dilemma arises when you try to prove it.

"Impregnable" and "invulnerability" and all other superlatives in general use are posing as axioms when they are mostly fallacies.—Wall Street Journal.

CLEVER BRIDE'S OWN TESTIMONY

If There Are Only Two of You and You Have No Maid, Listen to How This Mrs. Newlywed Got the Best of Breakfast.

A SPRING bride sends us this: "So many who keep a house without a maid have asked how I get my breakfast so that my husband is never late to the office that I want to pass on what I have learned through experience. 'Just before going to bed each night I put the dollies, silver and napkins on the table. I make out my menus each Friday for the following week and hang them in the kitchen over the table, so I never have to waste an instant's time when I get down mornings wondering what to have for breakfast. The first thing I do is to grind the coffee, a white enamel coffee mill is screwed to the wall with a glass canister fastened over the top holding the coffee and a graduated glass to catch and measure the coffee as it is ground.

"You would be surprised at the time this article saves. I open the door by the mill and take out the coffee pot, turn the coffee into it and carry it and a little oven I bought for 50 cents to set over one gas burner to the stove. I set the coffee boiling, then take a tray out to the refrigerator and bring in at one time everything I am to use. Over the table a shelf holds my breakfast set of willow ware; under it, on hooks, hang the utensils. Suppose I am having this morning fruit, cereal, scrambled eggs and rolls. I take down two plates for the fruit, two cereal dishes, cups and saucers, butter plates and breakfast plates. I prepare the fruit, take the cereal out of the cooker and put it in the bowls, pour on the cream, put the cream in the cups, cut the butter, all without moving from the table. I take the fruit, cereal and butter into the dining room on the tray.

"By that time my husband has done his few chores and is ready to sit down. I put the rolls the baker leaves each morning in the little oven, leaving them right in the paper bag, scramble the eggs, pour the coffee and take them in on the tray. I make two trips to the dining room, one to the refrigerator, and the rest of the time I hardly move from the table. A breakfast like this takes less than fifteen minutes. The whole secret lies in having things arranged, for, on Sundays I always make popovers, muffins or rolls and broil calves' liver and bacon, fish or make a Spanish omelette or hot cakes in winter. Every other week I have toast which is made at the table. Doing things this way really makes getting breakfast interesting. At any rate, it is better than flying about the kitchen hot and excited, while husband stands, watch in hand, wondering if he is going to get more than a cup of coffee 'this morning.'"

HOME BREWS.

How to Make Beers That Clear the Blood in the Summer.

Spruce Beer.—Allow an ounce of hops and a spoonful of ginger to a gallon of water. When well boiled strain and put in a pint of molasses or a pound of brown sugar and half an ounce or less of essence of spruce. When cool add a teaspoonful of yeast and put in a clean, tight cork to ferment for a day or two; then bottle for use. You can boil the sprigs of spruce in place of essence if preferred.

Sassafras Mead.—Mix gradually with two quarts of boiling water three and one-half pounds of the best brown sugar, one and one-half pints good molasses and one-fourth pound tartaric acid. Stir it well and when cool strain into a large jug or pan, then mix in a teaspoonful of essence of sassafras. Transfer it to clean bottles (it will fill about one-half dozen), cork tightly and keep in a cool place. It will be fit for use next day. Put into a box or boxes a quarter pound of carbonate of soda to use with it.

To prepare a glass of sassafras mead for drinking, put a large tablespoonful of the mead into a half tumblerful of ice water, stir into it a half teaspoonful of soda and it will foam up at once.

Hop Beer.—Take five quarts water, six ounces hops and boil three hours. Strain, add five quarts water, four ounces bruised ginger root and boil again twenty minutes. Strain, add four pounds sugar. When lukewarm put in one pint yeast and let ferment for twenty-four hours when it will be ready to bottle.

Silk Frocks. Foulard frocks are welcomed by a host of women, though this serviceable summer silk is not so greatly needed as it was in the day when we did not wear summer frocks of chiffon and georgette and sheer voile, etc. Still foulard has its own place and its substantial merits and whether used alone or in combination is a practical thing. The long loose tunic that is greatly in evidence is good in a foulard of successful design and over a narrow separate skirt of plain satin or even of serge often looks extremely well and serves a useful purpose.

Ornamental Veils. The woman who prefers her hat plain and her veil ornamental has her desire granted this season. Many of the new veils have a large, beaded medallion which can be cleverly adjusted over the right spot on any plain hat.

The Kitchen Cupboard

PRIZE RECIPES.

ROQUEFORT CHEESE DRESSING FOR LETTUCE.—Beat two ounces or a quarter of a cupful of Roquefort cheese to a cream with a wooden spoon. Then gradually beat in the yolk of one egg, a scant half teaspoonful of salt, half a teaspoonful of paprika, five tablespoonfuls of olive oil and two and a half tablespoonfuls of vinegar. If preferred a little thick cream may be substituted for part of the oil. Beat the dressing until very smooth and use immediately. This dressing is particularly good with lettuce, endive, sliced tomatoes and cold cooked cauliflower, but not with meat or fish salads.

Custard Filling For Washington Pie.—Put on a pint of milk to boil. Break two eggs into a dish and add a cupful of sugar and half a cupful of flour previously mixed. After beating well stir it into the milk just as the milk commences to boil. Add half an ounce of butter and keep on stirring one way until it thickens. Flavor with vanilla or lemon.

Delicious Gravy.—Fry a minced onion in butter or beef dripping to a dark brown color, stir into this a teaspoonful of flour (more if you like it thick). Stir well, then add one-half pint of water or stock, pepper, salt and ketchup to taste. Let it boil while stirring for five minutes, strain and serve. To vary the flavor of the gravy fry herbs, chopped celery or carrot with the onion.

Fruit Sauce For Cake.—Drain the juice from a can of any kind of fruit, though cherries or strawberries preferred (the fruit to be utilized for tomorrow's lunch). Heat the juice, adding more water or sugar if necessary or one-half cupful of sirup is an addition. Thicken slightly with a little cornstarch dissolved in cold water. Keep hot and pour over slices of sponge cake in individual serving dishes. Some of the fruit may be mashed or chopped and added if liked.

In canning fruit always save the bits of juice left from time to time and then put up a few cans, using the juice and less fruit in making various desserts.

There may be a scarcity of potatoes, but we still go to the chiro-podist to get rid of our corn.

FRENCH VICTIMS REPORT SINKING OF AMERICAN SHIP

Paris, June 8.—The torpedoing of a big American steamer and the shelling and sinking in which the steamer's crew was killed, is reported by the survivors of the French three-masted sailing ship, Jeanne Cordonnier. The French ship was torpedoed in the English channel on May 31, and the crew reached Havre in open boats. They declare they witnessed the destruction of the American ship after their own vessel had been sunk.

Chicago, June 8.—Wheat showed a declining tendency today owing largely to predictions that the government crop report would be heavy. Opening prices which ranged from the same as yesterday's finish to 1/2c lower with July at 2.12 and September at 1.84 1/2 to 1.85, were followed by moderate further setbacks all around.

The close was unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish. Advance of 1/2c with July at 2.22 and September at 1.95. Corn traders appeared to have returned to a normal state of mind after several days of excitement to the fixing of a maximum price limit. After opening at 1/2c lower quotations suggested a trifle more and then made something of a rally.

The close was strong at an advance of 3/4c to 2 1/2c. Oats were governed by corn. Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions. Sellers, though were not aggressive.

HARDING CHARGES DEMOCRATS WITH MENACING U. S.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Washington, June 8.—Senator Harding of Ohio, Republican, disclosed in the Senate today that lack of public care was retarding subscriptions to the Liberty Loan and that in the interest of unity senators were withholding information which might call for investigations and shake the confidence of the American people in the conduct of the war.

Senator Harding was speaking in reply to Senator Lewis, the Democratic whip, who had attacked Senator Harding's declaration day speech at Columbus, Ohio, in which he referred to Secretary McAdoo's bond selling methods as "hysterical" and "unseemly."

"I have no hesitancy in reaffirming that statement," insisted Senator Harding. "I believe the Liberty Loan campaign to be hysterical and unseemly."

Senator Lewis assailed Senator Harding for making a partisan speech on Decoration Day, which he characterized as "an unfortunate bit of partisan speech in order that he might strike at the president."

In that session both Senators Reed and Lewis assailed the practices and conduct of the Council of National Defense.

"I'll not be drawn into the matter further," continued Senator Harding, "but it is not a secret to say that conditions were disclosed creating the gravest anxiety. I'll not be led by heckling to make a sensational statement inclined to disturb the American tranquility."

"But I want to make this solemn statement," he added. "In putting aside partisanship there are those in this chamber who also are putting aside confidential information that might, if disclosed, call for investigations and that might shake the confidence of the American people in the conduct of the war."

Evidently angered by Senator Harding's charge, Senator Reed, of Missouri, Democrat, broke in:

"I regard that statement as more damaging than the disclosure of the fact. It is worse than the specific information. I challenge the senator to give us the facts."

"I could not answer better," retorted Senator Harding, "than to produce, if that were possible, the record of the recent executive sessions of the senate, in which both the senators from Missouri and Illinois were prominent."

BOY SCOUT BAND GAVE FINE CONCERT THURSDAY NIGHT

The visiting Boy Scouts from Ottawa county enjoyed a delightful day's outing here Thursday. They were entertained at the Country club and other points of interest, and last night an excellent band concert was given by the boys' band on the east steps of the court house.

A large crowd assembled, and remained during the concert from 6:30 to 7:30 o'clock.

AMERICAN PATROL BOATS WILL AID FRENCH FORCES

Paris, June 8.—An additional flotilla of patrol boats to co-operate with French forces in the English Channel and the Atlantic is expected shortly, according to the Matin. The paper says that naval bases have been prepared to accommodate the American ships.

GERMANS DEMAND STATE CONTROL OF U. S. COMPANIES

Copenhagen, via London, June 8.—The German Association of Manufacturers of Agricultural Machinery has addressed a demand to Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg for stringent measures against the International Harvester and Singer Sewing Machine companies. They demand that the German branches of these two American corporations be placed under state supervision, deprived of raw materials and that exempted workmen employed by the companies be assigned to German factories.

No action has been taken but the German manufacturers have started a press campaign and will also bring the matter before the Reichstag. One of the articles in the indictment against the Harvester Company is that its Chicago factory has accepted contracts for military automobile trucks.

BUYING ON APPROVAL MAY BE ABOLISHED NOW

Washington, June 8.—The practice of purchasing dry goods on approval and later returning it to stores constitutes an enormous unnecessary cost and is likely to be abolished as a war economy measure, the commercial economy board of the Council of National Defense reported today. An investigation shows that returned dry goods vary from four to 30 per cent of the sales, and cause many thousands of dollars of expense.

AMERICAN SHIP SUNK?
London, June 8.—There are five American survivors from the steamer Southland.

The International Mercantile Marine company, owners of the Southland, said today they had no advice that the vessel had met with disaster.

FIGHT DEVELOPS FOR TREASURER'S OFFICE IN U. C. T.

For the first time in 25 years a fight is on in the grand council U. C. T. for the election of treasurer. At this afternoon's election of officers opposition to Treasurer J. C. Nesbit of Columbus, developed and there was some doubt whether he would be re-elected. Nesbit has been treasurer of the grand council for 25 years, or since the U. C. T. was first organized. He also is treasurer of the supreme council and that is where the contest comes. Nesbit is one man holding both positions. Nesbit is from Columbus.

These officers were elected this afternoon. The treasurer, conductor, page, and sentinel are yet to be elected.

R. G. Witmer, Akron, O., grand counselor; Walter L. Booth, Lima, O., grand past counselor; Robert Annett, Cleveland, grand junior counselor; R. P. Somerville, Dayton, grand secretary—re-elected.

How Hard Rubber is Made.
We're all of us coming in contact with hard rubber every day of our lives. Our fountain pen, our inkwell tops, the magneto parts and telephone receivers are all made of hard rubber.

But how is it made? Where does it differ from the rubber in an automobile tire, for instance? We'll wager a guess that not one man in a thousand knows.

Vulcanization consists of uniting sulphur with rubber to give it certain properties of elasticity, durability and, still more important, make it to retain these same properties under all normal conditions of heat and cold.

When a larger proportion of sulphur than is found in ordinary soft rubber is present and vulcanization is continued for a much longer time we obtain as a result a substance vastly different in physical properties—hard rubber. Before vulcanization it is quite elastic and we can mold it to suit our needs.

Those Good Old Prices.
I've just come across an old menu, stained and torn, that was issued seventy-five years ago by Hathaway's hotel and eating house, which makes one long for a return of some prices that prevailed in those "good old days."

This famous old eating house stood on the spot where the present Boston tavern stands, and the menu referred to is one of the relics of old Boston days in the tavern's collection.

According to that menu, a porterhouse steak was served for 37 1/2 cents, tenderloin steak was 25 cents, veal cutlets and plain beefsteak 15 cents. Roast goose was 25 cents, turkey and chicken 20 cents.

In the barber shop shaving was 8 cents, hair cutting 15 cents and shampooing 20 cents. Baths cost 15 cents. A night's lodging was but 50 cents.—Boston Post.

Victor Hugo.
Victor Hugo was born at Besancon, France, Feb. 26, 1802; died May 22, 1885. He began his literary work at fourteen, and by 1827 his reputation was continental. In 1829, on account of his democratic sympathies, he was an exile in the island of Jersey, but after 1870 he returned to France. Forced into politics, he soon became disgusted with its insincerity and resigned his seat in the assembly to which he had been elected. In 1876 he was made a senator, but never accomplished much on account of his uncompromising hostility to every form of official trickery.

STREET CAR HITS POLICE PATROL IN N. FOURTH STREET

The police patrol wagon is in the garage today for repairs and a live auto is taking its place. Last evening about 8:30 o'clock, Chauffeur Wm. Slanger and Patrolman John G. Jost started in the patrol to answer a call and as they drove out of the station Mr. Hinger noticed an east bound city car approaching and thought he had ample time to make the turn but the street car struck the patrol auto square in the center of the front end, driving a distance of about sixty feet along the car tracks. Fortunately the patrol was not overturned. Patrolman Jones was slightly injured by the street car bumping into his right arm. Driver Hinger escaped entirely. The running board on the right side of the patrol was damaged.

GENERAL PERSHING AND STAFF GIVEN OVATION IN ENGLAND

don this afternoon. He was welcomed by Walter Hines Page, the American ambassador; Lord Derby, secretary of state for war; Viscount French, commanding the British home forces and other officers, including Lord Brooke, who will be attaching his stay in England.

The expected arrival of General Pershing and his party had been kept a fairly close secret from the London public until today but the many preparations for the visitors
which had been going on in secrecy came into public view early this morning. Several floors of rooms in a hotel had been reserved for the American party and the hotel this morning was completely transformed
by the placing of numerous sign boards, the installation of bureaus of information, etc., designed to make the most efficient possible use of the place as temporary American army headquarters.

Leading Americans in London appeared on the scene early today with credentials as members of various committees.

General Pershing and the 12 officers of his senior staff are to be guests of the British government at the Savoy. The remainder of the contingent will be looked after by American societies in London.

The American Chamber of Commerce, the Filippians, the Luncheon club, the American society and the American Women's club have combined to entertain the visitors and look after their needs and James Dunning, European manager of the National City Bank has been delegated to take charge of the civil entertainment. The junior staff officers are also to have quarters at the Savoy, while the officers and enlisted men comprising the special headquarters detail will be quartered in the Tower of London. The civilian clerks will stop at the Imperial hotel.

In addition to the establishment of an information bureau at the Savoy the government has detailed
a corps of boy and girl scouts to act
as messengers. Many American residents of London have placed their motors at the disposal of the entertainment committee, those donating cars including Mrs. John Astor, Mrs.
Whitlaw Reid, Mrs. Wm. W. Phipps
and Mrs. James E. Dunning. The commission for relief in Belgium has placed men at the disposal of General
Pershing to act as civilian aides.

The program of entertainment for the next few days is a full one.
The schedule for General Pershing and the senior staff officers is not yet known, but for one item on the program Ambassador Page will entertain them and other guests on Monday night at the Hotel de la Reine, the remainder of the program may be roughly indicated
thus:

Friday night, theatre: Saturday afternoon, a trip on the Thames and a visit to Windsor Castle; Saturday evening, theatre: Sunday afternoon and evening entertainment at the Dunning residence in London; Monday afternoon, a tour of London
with a theatre party in the evening;
Tuesday, a motor trip to Almerie
Paget's country home at Panshanger
for the afternoon and supper.

The entertainment program is to be financially sustained by American organizations and individuals.

PERSHING HAS 198 OFFICERS.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 8.—Major General Pershing, whose safe arrival in England is recorded in the foregoing dispatch, has with him 198 officers, enlisted men and other personnel. The party sailed more than a week ago without any publicity being given to their departure, despite the fact that it was known to some American newspapers. Here again, as was the case with the French and British mission, the newspapers loyally
co-operated with the government
in a voluntary censorship to guard
the passage of the American officers.

The party made the trip on scheduled time. It was learned today that the government had advised yesterday that the vessel on which they crossed was on time, relieving any anxiety that might have been felt.
Reports from Paris yesterday said that the General Pershing will inspect these and make complete arrangements for the reception of his troops.
No information as to the composition of the American force or when it may be expected to reach France has been given out beyond the original statement, supplemented by a regiment of marines, would be sent at the earliest practicable date.

PERSHING HAS BIG TASK.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Paris, June 8.—General Pershing's task in France was described as a most arduous one by Colonel Fabry, in an interview with a representative of the Petit Parisien. Colonel Fabry said:

"It is not an expeditionary corps
that will be sent from the United States, but a veritable army which will be increasingly swelled by fresh contingents and is destined to occupy an ever-increasing front."

PEASANTS URGED DISCIPLINE.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Petrograd (via London), June 8.—
The congress of peasants in session here adopted a resolution today calling upon the army to submit itself
to discipline and defend revolutionary Russia. The congress affirmed the duty of the country energetically
and to make every sacrifice to sustain the fighting strength of the army.

THREE ARE MURDERED.
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Flemington, N. J., June 8.—Wm.
H. Queen, his wife and his daughter, Miss Eleanor Queen, a school teacher, were murdered near Mount Pleasant, Hunterdon county, last night. The farm buildings were burned. The murdered man was a brother of former Judge Paul A.
Queen of Flemington, N. J.

OSTEND BASE IS BADLY CRIPPLED BY AIR ATTACK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, June 8.—A series of photographic plates of the bombardment of Ostend which arrived in London afford a remarkable example of the development of photographic observation and record by airplanes. They show in undeniable fashion that the British bombardment of Ostend last Tuesday was the most successful thing of its kind yet accomplished, ensuring that Ostend will be crippled as a useful German base for weeks, if not permanently. It is easy to see that there may have been a heavy loss of life, although the residential section was apparently untouched. British shells, dropped from a height of miles by the high angle of the British monitors located at a point of a shed or factory, blowing out great sections of the sides and roof and hurling a shrapnel like shower of splintered wood, steel and rock into the adjacent buildings.

NEW BETHEL
Mrs. Rose Clark, residing in Delaware county, suffered a severe attack of ptomaine poison last Thursday, from eating canned beans. Dr. C. B. Hempstead, attending physician, reported her on the road to recovery.

Last Wednesday twenty-eight Bethelites with well-filled baskets assembled at the home of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Gray of Croton, occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Gray.

Several of our boys have gone to Croton and Trenton this morning for the purpose of registering. Mrs. Hallie Myers and children of New Way, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Debolt.

BERLIN DISMISSES HAITIEN ENVOY; PROTESTS U-BOATS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Amsterdam, June 8, via London.—The Haitian charge d'affaires at Berlin has been handed his passports, according to a dispatch from the German capital. The Haitian diplomat had previously handed to Foreign Secretary Zimmermann a note protesting against unrestricted submarine warfare and demanding compensation for losses caused to Haitian commerce and life. The note also asked for guarantees for the future. A statement issued by the Berlin foreign office in regard to the incident says: "As the demands were couched in an unusual form and demanded fulfillment within a period which would not allow time even for examination, the imperial government deemed it proper to hand at once the charge d'affaires his passports."

HOMESICKNESS IS NOT FOR NEWARK BOYS IN BATTERY C

Edgar Albright, a former lynotype operator at the Advocate office, has written one of the staff members taking exceptions to the statement that many of the Licking county boys suffered from homesickness when they first arrived at Camp Perry. He states that they are all as lively as crickets and anything but homesick, all able to eat three meals a day.

The homesickness was not attributed to the Licking county soldiers in particular, in the letter written by Artilleryman Moore. Albright states that there are 25 of his companions quartered in the mess hall pending the arrival of their tents, and that if Newark denizens could see and hear them they would think that they were anything but homesick.

He declares that the meals furnished Uncle Sam's boys are excellent and that they get plenty of everything, including many hours a day of out door exercise. He has not gained quite twenty pounds but he expects to outlive his former chief in the Advocate composing room in a veridical before his return. The one disagreeable feature of camp life has been the rainy weather and getting the boys are commended to get around in their barefeet with trousers rolled up to their knees.

In closing his very interesting letter Artilleryman Albright says that post cards are more than welcomed by the boys and that the address is First Ohio Field Artillery, Battery C. The boys are eagerly awaiting visitors at the camp.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, June 8.—The Chronicle says that the description by the Northcliffe papers of Lord Northcliffe as a successor in the United States to Mr. Bacon is misleading.
